Welcome Back

We hope you had a good Easter Break!

You may remember that in February you were asked to complete a questionnaire about our school. The results are in and

We are happy to say that:

99% of parents think the school has a welcoming atmosphere!

99% of parents think that we are a good school!

12% of parents believe that they are not regularly informed of the learning that has taken place.

To combat this the school has:

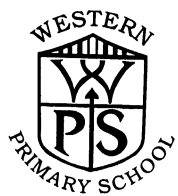

1. Promised that, as far as possible, the school will give 48 hours when cancelling any after school club or event.
2. Set up a comprehensive text system to send out any important dates or information—please ensure that your mobile phone number is correct at the office.
3. Created a Facebook page which will give all up to date information for parents.

Please like our page on:

www.facebook.com/WesternPrimarySchoolGrimsby

The school is planning on:

1. Updating the school website to include termly topics
www.westernprimary.co.uk
2. Create a blog that will share the weekly learning of all classes
